

NOAH's 15th National Conference

THE ALBINISM COMMUNITY'S BIGGEST BASH!

If you have never been to a NOAH conference, this is your chance to have the time of your life. If you've been there before and are wondering if it's worth it, there's always something new to learn and old friends to see as well as new friends to be made! Whether this is your first or your 15th conference, it's not too early to start planning!

THE TOWN & COUNTRY RESORT

- A short ride from the airport, across from an MTS station (public transit)
- Three pools
- Three restaurants
- Lots of hang out spots

Reserve your room - 800-772-8527

Mention NOAH for these rates plus 13% local tax:

- $129 single or double
- $149 triple
- $169 quad

Kids 18 & under stay free with an adult

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION FEE Estimated to be:

- $175 for ages 6 and up
- $95 for children ages 6 months to 5 years

Note: NOAH does everything possible to keep costs to a minimum. Fees don't cover the actual expenses. We rely on fundraising such as the annual bowl-a-thon, donations to the personal grant fund and sponsorships to cover the event costs.

NOAH 2014
San Diego
July 10-13, 2014

CALCULATE CONFERENCE COSTS

- Travel expenses: Gas or Airfare
- Getting to and from the airport
- Lodging – See Town & Country Resort info
- Registration fees – See Conference Registration info
- Food
- Misc. expenses

DEFRAY CONFERENCE COSTS

After crunching the numbers, if ends aren't meeting, start researching local grants. Money is tight, but with some effort and an itemized expense list, you can approach your State Commission for the Blind, local social service agencies and community service organizations such as the Lions, Rotarians, the Optimists, etc. Want more ideas? How about a yard sale?

SAN DIEGO FORECAST

- Generally sunny with a light breeze
- July temps are mid 70s to 80s
- Nights are slightly cooler
